

Welding Inter-Provincial Standards Examination Challenge Preparation Course

This course is designed for experienced welders looking for mobility between provinces and those interested in supervising future welders through the provincial program. The material covers the scope of the National Welder Occupation Analysis and is an excellent review package for welders challenging their Red Seal certification examination. This course is intended for workers who meet the program challenge requirements as specified by the Industry Training Authority.

All the information and forms to apply are online at www.itabc.ca/AssetFactory.aspx?did=868.

The ITA will assess work experience to determine qualification. To challenge the IP examination as Welder, you must provide proof of having a minimum of 5,400 hours welding experience, a Welder "Level A" or "Level B" Certificate of Qualification, and a completed ASME Performance Test # 6G.

Instructor: Mark Flynn has been a certified Journeyman welder for sixteen years. He shares with us a variety of experience being a welding inspector, supervisor and instructor.
